Editorial

This issue of PCP (Premier Critical Perspective), Vol. 5, Issue 2, has come out to meet the expectation that there should be two issues published every year rather than one as was the tradition. We published PCP, Vol. 5, Issue 1 in Septmeber, 2021. So this one has seen its birth rather quickly. In total 13 research articles have been published in this issue, with 12 articles contributed by inside faculties of PU and one by an outside faculty. The articles deal with wide-ranging subject matters, from literature to law, computers to banking, and from statecraft to epidemic. The articles, therefore, give an idea about areas our young faculty members are researching in.

I wish to thank heartily Mr. Shahid Md. Asif Iqbal, the associate editor of this issue for his superb assistance at every stage of processing the journal. Many of the publication hazards would not have been overcome without his constant support and suggestions. Secondly, Mohammad Moinul Haque, Assistant Dean of FBS, was also on hand to help. Besides, the Vice-Chancellor of Premier University, Professor Dr. Anupam Sen deserves our thanks for his all-out support. The Pro-VC, Professor Dr. Kazi Shamim Sultana, and the Treasurer, Professor A. K. M. Tafzal Haque are humbly thanked for encouraging us. The Registrar, Mr. Khurshidur Rahman did a fine job of overseeing the management of the publication of the journal.

But above all, the members of the Editorial Board deserve the highest regards and thanks for their continuous suggestions on how to produce a quality journal. Our sincere compliments to all of them.

Before I finish, I would like to give a corrigendum, which is as we published the previous issue PCP, Vol. 5, Issue 1, we detected that we published Mr. Shahidul Alam Chowdhury's name, an assistant professor of DELL, PU, wrongly as Shahidul Islam Chowdhury with his article, "Analysing Waliullah's Majeed in Tree Without Roots: An Existential Perspective". We sincerely apologize to him.

Best wishes.

Mohit Ul Alam
